

Volunteer Opportunity: Home Delivery Program Lead Volunteer

Location: Byrd Barr Place 722 18th Ave 98122

Commitment: 1–3 days per week (flexible, between 9am-5pm Tuesday- Thursday)

Are you passionate about food access and community support? Join us as a Lead Volunteer for our Home Delivery Program and play a key role in ensuring that high-quality food reaches community members who need it most!

About the Role:

We are looking for 2–3 dedicated volunteers to help lead and coordinate our home delivery operations. As a Home Delivery Program Lead, you will:

- Support Volunteer Coordination: Help guide and organize other volunteers during home delivery shifts.
- Ensure Quality and Timeliness: Oversee the packing process to make sure food boxes are assembled accurately, safely, and efficiently.
- Assist with Food Selection: Help choose appropriate food items for home delivery clients based on dietary preferences and inventory availability.
- Conduct Outreach & Follow-Up: Reach out to clients to confirm deliveries and gather feedback to help improve our services.

Ideal Candidates:

- Comfortable taking initiative and leading others
- Detail-oriented and committed to quality
- Friendly, communicative, and reliable
- Interested in food justice, community health, or nonprofit work

Perks:

- Make a meaningful impact in your community
- Gain leadership and nonprofit experience
- Work with a passionate, mission-driven team
- Snacks and good vibes included!

To Apply:

Reach out to Atiyeh Assaf at Atiyeh@byrdbarr.place or stop by Byrd Barr Place 722 18th Ave during business hours. We're happy to answer questions and work with your schedule.
